

IFHE – US
2018 Cultural Evening
June 24, 2018
7:30 – 9:30 p.m.
Atlanta Marriott Marquis, Atlanta, GA

Join us for an evening of fellowship and education. Dr. Wanda Figueroa Fuentes and Ircha Martinez, from Puerto Rico, will report on the aftermath of Hurricane Maria. Hear how the hurricane impacted families and children and the status of recovery. We will learn what the current needs are and how to help. In addition, Juanita Mendenhall will discuss what the Disaster Assistance Program (DAP) and International Home Economics Services (IHES) have been doing in the region to assist those affected by disasters and upcoming plans.

Tickets $75. Cash Bar Available

Proceeds from this event support the IFHE Development Fund providing grant funds to home economists across the world. The next round of grants will be presented at the IFHE 2020 World Congress.

RSVP to Dr. Joyce Cavanagh at jacavanagh@ag.tamu.edu or complete the following and mail to Joyce Cavanagh, 4219 Camber Ct, College Station, TX 77845. Please make checks payable to IFHE-US Development Fund.
